DEFEATED HUNS BEGIN RETREAT

LOSS OF ST. QUENTIN AND OTHER POINTS ON
HINDENBURG LINE COMPELS FALL-ING BACK.

(Associated Press War Summary)

A long road running east and northwest from the St. Quentin Cambrai line in northeastern France long transport trains are moving back toward the Belgian frontier, allied aviators report. This is taken as the first indication that the defeated enemy has begun a retreat before British, French and American thrust along this line.

Far to the north the Belgians are moving ahead with a steady sweep, seemingly directed at Lille, but which at the same time, threatens German submarine bases on the Belgian coast. General Berthelot is cutting rapidly into the German lines north and northwest of Rheims, imperiling the Germans farther east where General Gouraud is smashing their lines. Here the French have taken Chalange and reached Monthois.

American forces between Argonne and the Meuse river apparently are held up by violent and desperate German counter attacks.

Damascus Surrenders.

London, Oct. 2.—The Turkish commandant at Damascus has asked for terms of surrender of the city to General Allenby's forces, the Manchester Guardian says it learns. It is expected that troops of the British army in Palestine will enter the city today.

French Press Beyond St. Quentin.

Paris, Oct. 2.—French troops have passed beyond St. Quentin, which they captured yesterday, northeast, east and southeast of that town, according to the Havas agency, they hold a line running along the Somme from Tronquoy to Rouvroy and then along the St. Quentin-La-Fere road to the river Oise at Vendeuil.

Haig Tears Gaps in Hun Lines

London, Oct. 2.—Wide gaps have been torn in the German line between St. Quentin and LeCatelet by Field Marshal Haig's forces, according to his report today telling of the breaking of the enemy line on the Fesommes-Beaurevoir is two and a half miles east of LeCatelet and Fonsommes is about five miles northeast of St. Quentin. Sequel, four and a half miles southeast of Bellicourt has been taken as has Presselles village, just to the north.

Allies Capture Important Towns.

London, Oct. 2.—French and Belgian troops progressed in the direction of Hoogdele and Roulers and the British have seized Ledgehem on the Roulers-Menin railway, according to the Belgian official statement last night.

HUN RETREAT THREATENED

DEFENSE LINES BETWEEN CAM-
BRAI AND ST. QUENTIN BROK-EN BY ALLIES.

(By the Associated Press)

London, Oct. 2.—(1:30 P. M.)—German defense lines between Cambrai and St. Quentin have been broken. The British advance threatens the German retreat line in the Oise valley and also from St. Gobain massif. Between the Aisne and Vesle rivers the French advanced from three to four miles on a ten mile front in three days. An enemy retirement on a large scale is looked for.

Damascus Surrenders.
London, Oct. 2.—Damascus, capital of Syria, was occupied by General Allenby's forces Tuesday morning, according to an official statement from British war office.

Bulgarians Evacuating Serbia.
London, Oct. 2.—Serbia is being evacuated by Bulgarian troops who are returning to Bulgarian territory, according to a Serbian official statement issued last night.

LIBERTY

Many boys from Pontotoc county have served at Camp Bowie and this evening their relatives and friends will have an opportunity to see them there. This picture shows them at all stages of training. A complete view of everything and everybody.

Dietetic Habits.
Some people seem to think that a vegetarian is a curiosity. A rough calculation shows that the population of the world, now estimated approximately at 1,600,000,000, is said to be divided as to dietetic habits about as follows: Strict vegetarians, 250,000,000; practically vegetarians, but eating a little fish or flesh, 450,000,000; eating meat about once a week (on high days and holidays), 500,000,000; eating meat daily and sometimes more than once a day, 400,000,000.

Queer Epitaphs.

Queer epitaphs are frequently fakes; but the following really appears in a Selop churchyard: "Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Barklamb, passed to eternity on Saturday, 21st of May, 1797, in the seventy-first year of her age. Richard Barklamb, the Antelope Uxorious, was interred here, 28th Jan., 1806, in his eighty-fourth year." What an antelope uxorious may be is not explained.—Cardiff Western-Mail.

Female Mosquito Is Pest.

Gospel Motorwagon.

A gospel motorwagon was constructed in 1896 for a New York pastor, in which he preached. It had capacity for ten singers and a folding organ.—Chevrolet Review.

LIBERTY BONDS AS INVESTMENT

CHAIRMAN SAYS NEW SECURITIES PROVING ATTRACTIVE
TO SMALL INVESTORS.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 2.—(Special)—"The element of investment has entered more largely into the Fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions than in any previous drive," declared L. E. Phillips, state chairman today after reviewing supplementary reports of many county chairmen. This realization of personal responsibility are responsible for assurances that major portion of Oklahoma's quota will be subscribed on Monday.

"In beginning Oklahoma invested largely from patriotism and blind faith in representations made by President Wilson, Secretary McAdoo and congress later, as educational propaganda was extended throughout the state they felt that in order to check Hun outrages on eastern shores of Atlantic it was necessary to supply fighting men with essentials of warfare. Later, reviewing history of past government bond sales and avenues of other investments being narrowed down by council of defense restrictions and other conditions they took up matter from standpoint of investment. This has worked out so well and has induced so many salaried men earning from $1200 to $6000 yearly to place their earnings in bonds in order to save their country that many of these for the first time in their lives have learned to save and can appreciate good investment. This is also the case of men of moderate fortunes who with magnificent advance of American army are beginning to figure in dollars and cents just to what extent they are aiding in purchase of munitions which are daily consumed at front. Confidential reports from half dozen counties show that advance guarantees of pledges will not be complete until last day of campaign asserted Mr. Phillips and not until every dollar which is expected of Oklahoma is on record at federal reserve bank in Kansas City will efforts of Liberty Loan workers relax. The moral blow which Oklahoma will strike the Hun will be equally as effective as was the surprise which our boys inflicted at Chateau Thierry.

On the Road to Success.

That young man is wise who makes a plan, organizes his ambition, and makes each day contribute something toward its fulfillment. Success often seems delayed, but it is surely on the way for those who are getting ready for it. Over the desk of the boy or girl struggling with hard lessons that may seem at the present quite useless, let it be written in letters of gold: "I will study and get ready, and may be my chance will come."

World's Greatest Cataract.

What is set down as the greatest cataract in the world is on the Iguazu river, which partly separates Brazil and Argentina. The precipice over which the river plunges is 210 feet high, that of Niagara being 167 feet. The cataract is 13,123 feet wide, or about two and a half times as wide as Niagara. It is estimated that 100,000,000 tons of water pass over Niagara in an hour. A like estimate gives the falls of Iguazu 140,000,000 tons.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says
Cardui Made Her Will

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. C. H. Schilt, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep, I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles first, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me.

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the bottles are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

Perhaps the Kaiser objects to his soldiers being killed with shotguns on the same ground that a tenderfoot objected to being torn to pieces by a bunch of javelins, or Mexican hogs, in the early days of Texas. From his precarious roost in a bunch of chapparal where he was treed by the hogs, he shouted to a friend to tell his folks that he was killed by a bear, panther or some other decent varmint and not eaten up by a lot of squealing pigs. From the German point of view it may be a disgrace to be killed with a sawed off pump gun.

The Huns have been chased out of St. Quentin at last and have thus lost another important point of their line of defense. This was one of the chief bulwarks of the Hindenburg line and its fall means that the Huns can no longer hold the allied armies back. This advance places the allies considerably beyond the farthest point held by them before Hindenburg began his drive in March. Last year the French made strenuous attempts to capture the place but failed after several months of effort. The retreat to their own territories looms larger before the Germans.

When Russia was seized by the bolsheviks and handed over to the Kaiser, Rumania was completely isolated from her allies and was completely surrounded by her enemies. There was nothing left but make peace on any terms laid down by the Huns, although these meant the enslavement of the nation until relief could reach the unfortunate people. Now the wheel of fortune has taken a new turn, Bulgaria on the south is out of the war and the allies have the use of Bulgarian railways which will place them in touch with Rumania. Supplied with arms and ammunition the Rumanians will probably seize the opportunity to avenge a few of the outrages suffered at the hands of the despoilers. They are said to be eager for such an opportunity and the Austrians may soon have another enemy in the rear who will prove very troublesome.

For the convenience of the public the News is carrying on sale a supply of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates.

ENORMOUS BOMBS USED SPIRIT OF HEROIC BY AMERICAN AIRMEN

Behind the American Lines in France, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Bombs of an incredible size are now carried by American aircraft, and some idea of their destructive capacity may be gained from the fact that they cannot be dropped at a lower altitude than 8,000 feet, so greatly is the air disturbed by the explosion.

An amusing incident occurred when the first of these was dropped on enemy territory, which is much harried by American bombers and consequently bristles with searchlights and anti-aircraft batteries. So terrific was the explosion that every searchlight went out instantly, and the airmen was deprived of the landmarks on which he had counted to find his way home.

American in this squadron have had remarkable success. In two weeks they accounted for twenty-six enemy machines seventeen of which were crashed, and one balloon. All are imbued with the idea of maintaining the offensive under all circumstances. Recently two of them, finding them selves out off by twenty of the enemy while returning to camp, refused to seek safety in flight. Instead, they swooped up at the German machines, which were all above them, and so rattled the enemy by their unexpected daring that they actually brought down four of his machines and, though not undamaged themselves, were able to land behind our lines.

A successful attack was made by members of this squadron not long ago upon a troublesome enemy aerodrome which long had evaded discovery, so cleverly was it concealed in the grounds of a chateau. The chateau served as the headquarters of the officers of the German squadron, and the hangars were hidden in the edge of the woods about the house. The American squadron was acting as escort to the bombers charged with the destruction of the aerodrome.

In a field about half a dozen enemy airplanes were discovered, most of them with their propellers running and preparing for flight. The American machines swooped down within a hundred feet of the ground and circled about the field, sweeping it with the fire from their machine-guns until all of the German machines were blazing and the men attending them either shot or driven into the nearby wood.

Meantime bombs had been dropped on all the hangars and on the chateau itself, which burnt like a torch and lighted the attackers on their return journey.

QUEEN UNBROKEN

Paris, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Queen Marie, Rumania's heroic "Soldier Queen," wept when the gallant Rumanian army was demobilized by order of the Germans; but she declared that it would not be for long, that Rumania would fight again.

The disbanding of the army of 300,000 soldiers was one of the stern measures forced upon Rumania by the terms of Germany's humiliating and uncompromising peace treaty. Emperor William of Germany gave King Ferdinand of Rumania just one month in which to strip his army of all its power.

In a great open stretch of land at the foot of the rugged Carpathian Mountains, not far from the Austrian frontier, the Queen, accompanied by the King and the royal family, reviewed the remnants of officers and soldiers who had fought so bravely during the eighteen months that Rumania faced the four formidable foes that surrounded her.

As each division passed along the line of march, there were repeated demonstrations, shouts of acclaim, and many marks of affection on the part of the troops to their beloved Queen, whom they revere with a devotion almost as fervid as that shown by the French soldier for the memory of Joan of Arc.

On the way to the review every inhabitant of the villages through which the Queen passed gave her a demonstration so overwhelming and spontaneous that she herself acknowledged later that it was the greatest single tribute she had received at the hands of the people since the beginning of the war. There could be no doubt even in the mind of the firmest pacifist that Rumania's fighting Queen had the loyal and wholehearted support of the entire population in her struggle to stave off a humiliating peace with Germany.

As the men who had fought on the sanguinary field of Marasesti, which is the Gettysburg of Rumania, march by, each bearing on his breast the coveted "Michael the Brave," medal for gallantry, the Queen broke into tears and, turning to the king, who stood beside her, said, in a voice that betrayed deep emotion:

"What a tragedy that this magnificent army must lay down its arms! But, please God, it shall not be for long! I repeat it, it shall not be for long! Germany by her might and brutality may subdue, but she can never crush the spirit and will of my soldiers. With God's help, we will fight again, and I pray that the day is not far off. My soul will never rest until the honor of the country is vindicated before the eyes of our Allies."

Where Reality is Found.
Listen to words and you will hear words; listen to voices and you will hear reality.—Harold Goddard, in Atlantic.

—AN END IS FOR YOU.

When You Fight--Fight

FIGHT as these American soldiers fought in the streets of Fismes. "They covered themselves with glory," the papers say. Of course they did—they are Americans.

They met the finest of the enemy's troops in a terrific hand-to-hand struggle. They used their guns—their bayonets—their bare fists. Every American soldier went after his man desperately, fearlessly, persistently, with one great driving purpose—to whip that Prussian Guard, to silence its machine guns—to win!

It's a pretty good way to fight—this American way. It wins battles over there, it will win a splendid victory over here—if we fight when we fight—if we buy Liberty Bonds to our utmost.

When you fight—fight! When you buy—buy!

SHALL WOMEN VOTE?

By Daisy Leland, Chairman, Red Rock, Oklahoma

On November 5 men on the farms of Oklahoma are going to say whether or not the women on those farms shall help them shape the political future of our State.

I want to vote, therefore I am going to say so, and say it now, before it is too late. I am going to talk to the voters on the farms of Oklahoma, and I am going to talk straight from the shoulder.

Laws affect women as much as men. Women must obey the laws, but at present they have no voice in saying what these laws shall be. Every section of the legislature places laws affecting women, children and the home.

Every law affecting women, children or the home needs women's viewpoint and experience, and the lack of that viewpoint and experience is a great economic waste as well as an injustice to women.

Farmers as a class are quick to see the justice and importance of a given proposition when brought to their attention. It is right to deprive your wife of a voice in saying what influences shall surround her home and her children?

The farmer and his wife are one. Their interests are identical. They more nearly share each other's work and pleasures than any other class of people in the world.

But, Mr. Farmer, while you are absorbed in farm and stock raising problems your wife is absorbed in home and child rearing problems. Here is the guiding hand in your children's education. You know that and are proud of it.

Scratch your head and think a minute. Have you seen any marked improvement in any rural school but that a woman was at the bottom of it?

Now, think again. If women are specialists along the line of home making and child rearing, why, in the name of justice and economy, shouldn't they be allowed to use that specialized knowledge in making the laws which govern the home and children?

One man said to me, "I represent my wife at the polls." I replied, "I would as soon my husband would represent me at the breakfast table."

The farm woman is bearing her full share of the burden of war, and no man says her nay. Who shall say her nay when she demands her full share in the responsibilities and privileges of government?

And who shall say her nay when with her help, the last trench has been won and we lay down the war burden to take up the heavier one of reconstruction?

Do you want to undertake the job of rebuilding a war ruined world without the help of your faithful wife? I don't believe you do!

Men and women, we must lift together!

There is just one thing lacking to make the farmer and his wife real partners in the business of living, and that is the ballot.

Get right, Mr. Farmer, and then help your neighbor get right.

Listen to what the National Grange, our own organization, says of equal suffrage: "We are proud of the fact that the Grange was the first great body in this nation to adopt woman suffrage and to safeguard it by providing for the equality of women with men in the exercise of all rights, privileges and governing powers in its organic laws. Thus the Grange, having, both by precept and example, been the pioneer of this 'New Freedom,' it is eminently fitting it should take a foremost stand in the movement to give to all women their right to suffrage."

Now listen to the testimony of Grange Worthy Masters in equal suffrage states. This from Washington, where woman suffrage has been in effect since 1910:

"We of the West are proud of the record our women have made in the use of the ballot. It is no longer an experiment. It has been thoroughly tried out. The woman voter has proved to be the most safe and sane of voters, and we hope the men of the Grange who know this will see to it that woman suffrage is carried to speedy victory in every Grange State."

And now let us hear from our neighbor, Kansas: "The women of Kansas are a power in forcing all parties to put up their best men; no man whose record is shady can get a nomination; polling places are cleaner; roosterism and vice are prohibited, and suffrage is now receiving the support of the better element which first opposed it."

In twelve states women have equal suffrage with men. In nine others they have a large degree of suffrage. Two of these are Texas and Arkansas, which have recently given primary suffrage to their women. Seven are states where the women have presidential suffrage and one where they have state-wide municipal suffrage.

Equal suffrage is coming to the Republic of the United States and coming with a rush. England and Canada have had their eyes opened by the war and have extended suffrage to their women. Does Oklahoma think less of her women than does this monarchy?

When your boy over in France "goes over the top" he may give his life for democracy and for his mother. Will you on November 5 "go over the top" for that mother by giving her the ballot and the right to believe that democracy is something more than a name?

I just believe you will!

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During those years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DEFEATED HUNS BEGIN RETREAT

HINDENBURG LINE COMPELS FALL-ING BACK.

(Associated Press War Summary)

A long road running east and northwest from the St. Quentin Cambrai line in northeastern France long transport trains are moving back toward the Belgian frontier, allied aviators report. This is taken as the first indication that the defeated enemy has begun a retreat before British, French and American thrust along this line.

Far to the north the Belgians are moving ahead with a steady sweep, seemingly directed at Lille, but which at the same time, threatens German submarine bases on the Belgian coast. General Berthelot is cutting rapidly into the German lines north and northwest of Rheims, imperiling the Germans farther east where General Gouraud is smashing their lines. Here the French have taken Chalange and reached Monthois.

American forces between Argonne and the Meuse river apparently are held up by violent and desperate German counter attacks.

Damascus Surrenders.

London, Oct. 2.—The Turkish commandant at Damascus has asked for terms of surrender of the city to General Allenby's forces, the Manchester Guardian says it learns. It is expected that troops of the British army in Palestine will enter the city today.

French Press Beyond St. Quentin.

Paris, Oct. 2.—French troops have passed beyond St. Quentin, which they captured yesterday, northeast, east and southeast of that town, according to the Havas agency, they hold a line running along the Somme from Tronquoy to Rouvrois and then along the St. Quentin-La Fere road to the river Oise at Vendeuil.

Haig Tears Gaps in Hun Lines

London, Oct. 2.—Wide gaps have been torn in the German line between St. Quentin and LeCatelet by Field Marshal Haig's forces, according to his report today telling of the breaking of the enemy line on the Fesommes-Beaurevoir is two and a half miles east of LeCatelet and Fonsommes is about five miles northeast of St. Quentin. Sequehart, four and a half miles southeast of Bellicourt has been taken as has Presselles village, just to the north.

Allies Capture Important Towns.

London, Oct. 2.—French and Belgian troops progressed in the direction of Hoogdele and Roulers and the British have seized Ledgehem on the Roulers-Menin railway, according to the Belgian official statement last night.

DEFENSE LINES BETWEEN CAM-
BRAI AND ST. QUENTIN BROK-EN BY ALLIES.

(By the Associated Press)

London, Oct. 2.—(1:30 P. M.)—German defense lines between Cambrai and St. Quentin have been broken. The British advance threatens the German retreat line in the Oise valley and also from St. Gobain massif. Between the Aisne and Vesle rivers the French advanced from three to four miles on a ten mile front in three days. An enemy retirement on a large scale is looked for.

Damascus Surrenders.

London, Oct. 2.—Damascus, capital of Syria, was occupied by General Allenby's forces Tuesday morning, according to an official statement from British war office.

Bulgarians Evacuating Serbia.

London, Oct. 2.—Serbia is being evacuated by Bulgarian troops who are returning to Bulgarian territory, according to a Serbian official statement issued last night.

Dietetic Habits.
Some people seem to think that a vegetarian is a curiosity. A rough calculation shows that the population of the world, now estimated approximately at 1,800,000,000, is said to be divided as to dietetic habits about as follows: Strict vegetarians, 250,000,000; practically vegetarians, but eating a little fish or flesh, 450,000,000; eating meat about once a week (on high days and holidays), 500,000,000; eating meat daily and sometimes more than once a day, 400,000,000.

Queer Epitaphs.

Queer epitaphs are frequently fakes; but the following really appears in a Salop churchyard: "Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Barklamb, passed to eternity on Saturday, 21st of May, 1797, in the seventy-first year of her age. Richard Barklamb, the Antepouse Uxorious, was interred here, 26th Jan., 1803, in his eighty-fourth year." What an antepouse uxorious may be is not explained.—Cardiff Western-Mail.

Female Mosquito Is Pest.

The male mosquito lives but a short time and does not often suck blood. The female normally feeds on the juice of plants, but prefers blood whenever there are any animals or humans to furnish it.

Gospel Motorwagon.

A gospel motorwagon was constructed in 1896 for a New York pastor, in which he preached. It had capacity for ten singers and a folding organ.—Chevrolet Review.

LIBERTY BONDS AS INVESTMENT

CHAIRMAN SAYS NEW SECURITIES PROVING ATTRACTIVE
TO SMALL INVESTORS.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 2.—(Special)—"The element of investment has entered more largely into the Fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions than in any previous drive," declared L. E. Phillips, state chairman today after reviewing supplementary reports of many county chairmen. This realization of personal responsibility are responsible for assurances that major portion of Oklahoma's quota will be subscribed on Monday.

In beginning Oklahoma invested largely from patriotism and blind faith in representations made by President Wilson, Secretary McAdoo and congress later, as educational propaganda was extended throughout the state they felt that in order to check Hun outrages on eastern shores of Atlantic it was necessary to supply fighting men with essentials of warfare. Later, reviewing history of past government bond sales and avenues of other investments being narrowed down by council of defense restrictions and other conditions they took up matter from standpoint of investment. This has worked out so well and has induced so many salaried men earning from $1200 to $6000 yearly to place their earnings in bonds in order to save their country that many of these for the first time in their lives have learned to save and can appreciate good investment. This is also the case of men of moderate fortunes who with magnificent advance of American army are beginning to figure in dollars and cents just to what extent they are aiding in purchase of munitions which are daily consumed at front. Confidential reports from half dozen counties show that advance guarantees of pledges will send these counties over the top on first day, but work of committees will not be complete until last day of campaign asserted Mr. Phillips and not until every dollar which is expected of Oklahoma is on record at federal reserve bank in Kansas City will efforts of Liberty Loan workers relax. The moral blow which Oklahoma will strike the Hun will be equally as effective as was the surprise which our boys inflicted at Chateau Thierry.

On the Road to Success.

That young man is wise who makes a plan, organizes his ambition, and makes each day contribute something toward its fulfillment. Success often seems delayed, but it is surely on the way for those who are getting ready for it. Over the desk of the boy or girl struggling with hard lessons that may seem at the present quite useless, let it be written in letters of gold: "I will study and get ready, and may be my chance will come."

World's Greatest Cataract.

What is set down as the greatest cataract in the world is on the Igazu river, which partly separates Brazil and Argentina. The precipices over which the river plunges is 210 feet high, that of Niagara being 167 feet. The cataract is 13,123 feet wide, or about two and a half times as wide as Niagara. It is estimated that 100,000,000 tons of water pass over Niagara in an hour. A like estimate gives the falls of Igazu 140,000,000 tons.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. Took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

Perhaps the Kaiser objects to his soldiers being killed with shotguns on the same ground that a tenderfoot objected to being torn to pieces by a bunch of javelins, or Mexican hogs, in the early days of Texas. From his precarious roost in a bunch of chapparal where he was tried by the hogs, he shouted to a friend to tell his folks that he was killed by a bear, panther or some other decent varmint and not eaten up by a lot of squealing pigs. From the German point of view it may be a disgrace to be killed with a sawed off pump gun.

The Huns have been chased out of St. Quentin at last and have thus lost another important point of their line of defense. This was one of the chief outposts of the Hindenburg line and its fall means that the Huns can no longer hold the allied armies back. This advance places the allies considerably beyond the farthest point held by them before Hindenburg began his drive in March. Last year the French made strenuous attempts to capture the place but failed after several months of effort. The retreat to their own territories looms larger before the Germans.

When Russia was seized by the bolsheviks and handed over to the Kaiser, Rumania was completely isolated from her allies and was completely surrounded by her enemies. There was nothing left but make peace on any terms laid down by the Huns, although these meant the enslavement of the nation until relief could reach the unfortunate people. Now the wheel of fortune has taken a new turn. Bulgaria on the south is out of the war and the allies have the use of Bulgarian railways which will place them in touch with Rumania. Supplied with arms and ammunition the Rumanians will probably seize the opportunity to avenge a few of the outrages suffered at the hands of the despottical. They are said to be eager for such an opportunity and the Austrians may soon have another enemy in the rear who will prove very troublesome.

ENORMOUS BOMBS USED SPIRIT OF HEROIC BY AMERICAN AIRMEN QUEEN UNBROKEN

Behind the American Lines in France, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Bombs of an incredible size are now carried by American aircraft, and some idea of their destructive capacity may be gained from the fact that they cannot be dropped at a lower altitude than 8,000 feet, so greatly is the air disturbed by the explosion.

An amusing incident occurred when the first of these was dropped on enemy territory, which is much harried by American bombers and consequently bristles with searchlights and anti-aircraft batteries. So terrific was the explosion that every searchlight went out instantly, and the airmen was deprived of the landmarks on which he had counted to find his way home.

American in this squadron have had remarkable success. In two weeks they accounted for twenty-six enemy machines seventeen of which were crashed, and one balloon. All are imbued with the idea of maintaining the offensive under all circumstances.

Recently two of them, finding themselves out of twenty of the enemy while returning to camp, refused to seek safety in flight. Instead, they swept up at the German machines, which were all above them, and so rattled the enemy by their unexpected daring that they actually brought down four of his machines and, though not undamaged themselves, were able to land behind our lines.

A successful attack was made by members of this squadron not long ago upon a troublesome enemy aerodrome which long had evaded discovery, so cleverly was it concealed in the grounds of a chateau. The chateau served as the headquarters of the officers of the German squadron, and the hangars were hidden in the edge of the woods about the house. The American squadron was acting as escort to the bombers charged with the destruction of the aerodrome.

In a field about half a dozen enemy airplanes were discovered, most of them with their propellers running and preparing for flight. The American machines swooped down within a hundred feet of the ground and circled about the field, sweeping it with the fire from their machine-guns until all of the German machines were blazing and the men attending them either shot or driven into the nearby wood.

Meantime bombs had been dropped on all the hangars and on the chateau itself, which burnt like a torch and lighted the attackers on their return journey.

CROP SUMMARY FOR SEPTEMBER

This year 39 percent of the total acreage was abandoned on account of continued dry weather and various other causes. The average yield per acre this year is estimated at 7 bushels. Average yield last year was 13 bushels per acre. The preliminary estimate of the total production of corn for the state is 26,324,000 bushels. The total yield in 1917 was 41,827,000 bushels.

The growing condition of cotton is 36 per cent. Condition last month was 32 per cent and on the same date one year ago the condition was 62 per cent. All parts of the state report a fair top crop of cotton, and from all reports there will be plenty of labor available for the harvesting of the crop.

Condition of kafir is 41 per cent, milo 42 per cent, sorghum 47 per cent and alfalfa 56 per cent. Condition of same crops last month was as follows: kafir 34 per cent, milo 35 per cent, sorghum 35 per cent, alfalfa 73 per cent. All forage crops have been benefited some during the past month by general rains which fell over the state.

The average yield per acre of kafir this year is estimated at 11 bushels. The average yield per acre of milo is estimated at 12 bushels. Last year the average yield per acre of kafir was 22 bushels and milo 20 bushels.

The farmer has on hand from this year's crops 23 per cent of wheat and 45 per cent of oats; having consumed and marketed during the past month 14 per cent of wheat and 17 per cent of oats.

10-2-18

Paris, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Queen Marie, Rumania's heroic "Soldier Queen," wept when the gallant Rumanian army was demobilized by order of the Germans; but she declared that it would not be for long, that Rumania would fight again.

The disbanding of the army of 300,000 soldiers was one of the stern measures forced upon Rumania by the terms of Germany's humiliating and uncompromising peace treaty. Emperor William of Germany gave King Ferdinand of Rumania just one month in which to strip his army of all its power.

In a great open stretch of land at the foot of the rugged Carpathian Mountains, not far from the Austrian frontier, the Queen, accompanied by the King and the royal family, reviewed the remnants of officers and soldiers who had fought so bravely during the eighteen months that Rumania faced the four formidable foes that surrounded her.

As each division passed along the line of march, there were repeated demonstrations, shouts of acclaim, and many marks of affection on the part of the troops to their beloved queen, whom they revere with a devotion almost as fervid as that shown by the French soldier for the memory of Joan of Arc.

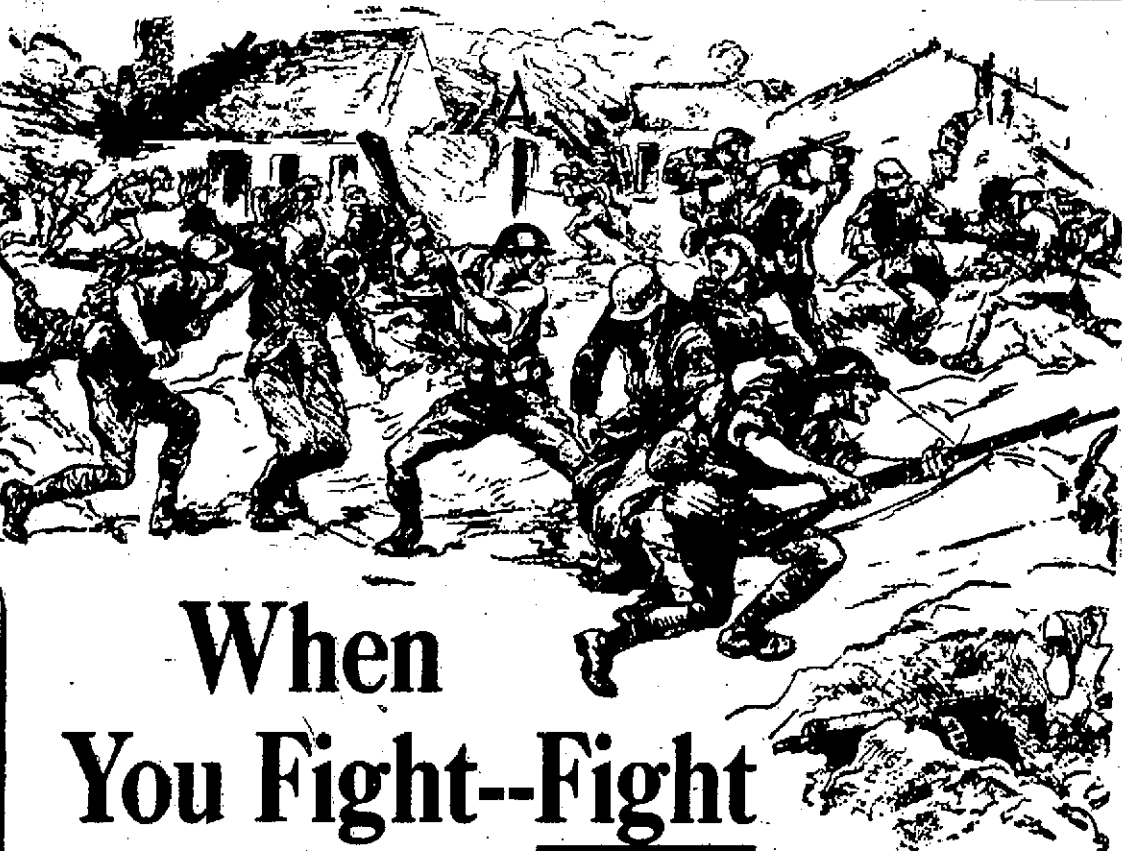

On the way to the review every inhabitant of the villages through which the Queen passed gave her a demonstration so overwhelming and so enthusiastic that she herself acknowledged later that it was the greatest single tribute she had received at the hands of the people since the beginning of the war. There could be no doubt even in the mind of the fiercest pacifist that Rumania's fighting queen had the loyal and wholehearted support of the entire population in her struggle to save off a humiliating peace with Germany.

As the men who had fought on the sanguinary field of Marasseth, which is the Gettysburg of Rumania, march by, each bearing on his breast the coveted "Michael the Brave," medal for gallantry, the Queen broke into tears and, turning to the king, who stood beside her, said, in a voice that betrayed deep emotion:

"What a tragedy that this magnificent army must lay down its arms! But, please God, it shall not be for long! I repeat it, it shall not be for long! Germany by her might and brutishness may subdue, but she can never crush the spirit and will of my soldiers. With God's help, we will fight again, and I pray that the day is not far off. My soul will never rest until the honor of the country is vindicated before the eyes of our Allies."

When You Fight--Fight

FIGHT as these American soldiers fought in the streets of Fismes. "They covered themselves with glory," the papers say. Of course they did—they are Americans.

They met the finest of the enemy's troops in a terrific hand-to-hand struggle. They used their guns—their bayonets—their bare fists. Every American soldier went after his man desperately, fearlessly, persistently, with one great driving purpose—to whip that Prussian Guard, to silence its machine guns—to win!

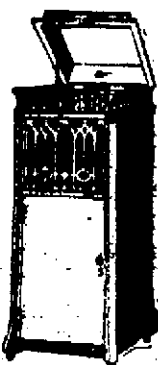

It's a pretty good way to fight—this American way. It wins battles over there, it will win a splendid victory over here—if we fight when we fight—if we buy Liberty Bonds to our utmost.

SHALL WOMEN VOTE?

By Daisy Lambh Goddard, Red Rock, Oklahoma.

On November 6 men on the farms of Oklahoma are going to say whether or not the women on those farms shall help them shape the political future of our State.

I want to vote, therefore I am going to say so, and say it now, before it is too late. I am going to talk to the voters on the farms of Oklahoma, and I am going to talk straight from the shoulder.

Laws affect women as much as men. Women must obey the laws, but at present they have no voice in saying what those laws shall be.

Every section of the territory passes laws affecting women, children and the home.

Every law affecting women, children or the home needs women's viewpoint and experience, and the lack of that viewpoint and experience is a great economic waste as well as an injustice to women.

Farmers as a class are quick to see the justice or injustice of a given proposition when brought to their attention. Is it right to deprive your wife of a voice in saying what influences shall surround her home and her children?

The farmer and his wife are one. Their interests are identical. They more nearly share each other's work and pleasures than any other class of people in the world.

But, Mr. Farmer, while you are absorbed in farm and stock raising problems your wife is absorbed in home and child rearing problems. Here is the guiding hand in your children's education. You know that and are proud of it.

Scratch your head and think a minute. Have you seen any marked improvement in any rural school but that a woman was at the bottom of it?

Now, think again. If women are specialists along the line of home making and child rearing, why, in the name of justice and economy, shouldn't they be allowed to use that specialized knowledge in making the laws which govern the home and children?

One man said to me: "I represent my wife at the polls." I replied, "I would as soon my husband would represent me at the breakfast table."

The farm woman is bearing her full share of the burden of war, and no man says her nay. Who shall say her nay when she demands her full share in the responsibilities and privileges of government?

And who shall say her nay when with her help, the last trench has been won and we lay down the war burden to take up the heavier one of reconstruction?

Do you want to undertake the job of rebuilding a war ruined world without the help of your faithful wife? I don't believe you do!

Men and women, we must lift together!

There is just one thing lacking to make the farmer and his wife real partners in the business of living, and that is the ballot.

Get right, Mr. Farmer, and then help your neighbor get right.

Listen to what the National Grange, our own organization, says of equal suffrage: "We are proud of the fact that the Grange was the first great body in this nation to adopt woman suffrage and to safeguard it by providing for the equality of women with men in the exercise of all rights, privileges and governing powers in its organic laws. Thus the Grange, having, both by precept and example, been the pioneer of this 'New Freedom,' it is eminently fitting it should take a foremost stand in the movement to give to all women their right to suffrage."

Now listen to the testimony of Grange Worthy Masters in equal suffrage states. This from Washington, where woman suffrage has been in effect since 1910:

"We of the West are proud of the record our women have made in the use of the ballot. It is no longer an experiment. It has been thoroughly tried out. The woman voter has proved to be the most safe and sane of voters, and we hope the men of the Grange who know this will see to it that woman suffrage is carried to speedy victory in every Grange State."

And now let us hear from our neighbor, Kansas: "The women of Kansas are a power in forcing all parties to put up their best men; no man whose record is shady can get a nomination; polling places are cleaner; rowdiness and vice are prohibited, and suffrage is now receiving the support of the better element which first opposed it."

In twelve states women have equal suffrage with men. In nine others they have a large degree of suffrage. Two of these are Texas and Arkansas, which have recently given primary suffrage to their women. Seven are states where the women have presidential suffrage and one where they have state-wide municipal suffrage.

Equal suffrage is coming to the Republic of the United States and coming with a rush. England and Canada have had their eyes opened by the war and have extended suffrage to their women. Does Oklahoma think less of her women than does this monarchy?

When your boy over in France "goes over the top" he may give his life for democracy and for his mother. Will you on November 6 "go over the top" for that mother by giving her the ballot and the right to believe that democracy is something more than a name?

I just believe you will!

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. F. M. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Bowser Is Sentimental But, as Usual, It Is Not Appreciated

(Copyright, 1921, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Mr. Bowser took a seat on the front steps the other evening to smoke his cigar.
The cat was with him and she purred peacefully. The crickets in the grass of the front yard sang songs for his pleasure.
The moon rose, and she rose higher than usual, as if to challenge his admiration.
Now and then a whippoorwill called for his mate, and the sound of a ped-

"Boss, Have You Any Umbrellas to Be Mended?"

Creator for making you each a night;
free of expense. How many of those delicious stars can you count?
"I'm not a-going to try, but I can count one old chump sitting on his front steps with a cat in his lap. Why don't you talk plain English, as all other folks do?"
The peddler had been gone five or ten minutes when the cobbler came over with a piece of paper in his hand.
He waited a moment to be addressed,
and, as he was not, he said:
"I beg your pardon, Mr. Bowser, but here is something you have forgotten.
You had a patch put on a shoe about three months ago and you forgot to hand me the change. It is only a quarter, but I happen to need it.
Here is the bill."
"Cobbler—patch—shoe," repeated Mr. Bowser. "Why, man, you should not have come here this evening of all evenings in the year."
"But I thought you had forgotten."
"Didn't you see that glorious moon and those bright stars? Didn't you see that I was plunged in thought?"
"I saw the moon and stars," replied the cobbler, "but I thought you come out here to cool off and it wouldn't do any hurt to speak to you. If you can't pay the bill now—"
"Pay for a patch on a shoe such a night as this! Don't you hear the crickets warbling their sad notes?
Don't you see the fleeting shadows?
Don't you feel this soft and gentle evening breeze?"
"Why, I think I do," replied the cobbler, "and you can step in and pay the bill in the morning. I wouldn't think too much if I were you, for it makes one loose in the head. One time, I sat and looked at the moon for about half an hour, and it made me sleepy. I couldn't figure two and two,
and the doctor warned me that I had better look out."
The cobbler went away, and Mr.
Bowser returned to his state of entrancement. The harp struck up again, and this time there was a singer with it. The song was "Buffalo Gals" and the air was meant to be lively, but struck Mr. Bowser with a peculiar sadness. The moon also seemed to be sad and the stars no longer shone with their former brilliancy. Mr. Bowser felt a tear sadly rolling down his sad cheek, and his chin might have begun to quiver with emotion, when a sewing machine agent came along at a brisk walk and turned into the gate,
and said:
"Perhaps you haven't got a sewing machine yet? I am agent for one of the best and yet one of the cheapest machines ever brought out. If you have no objections, I should like to speak with your wife?"
"No mind but a sordid and selfish mind could come around here at this hour of the night and profane the heavens as you are doing. Don't you der's voice shouting "blackberries" came to his ears like a sweet lullaby.

Mr. Bowser grew sentimental under all these things. He thought of his boyhood days. He thought how pleasant life was. He thought how good Mrs. Bowser was to him, and how there was not another cat in the town who thought as much of her home by and by an umbrella mender opened his gate and walked in and said:
"Boss, have you got any umbrellas to be mended?"
"My dear friend," replied Mr. Bowser, "how can you view that glorious moon up there and talk of mending

"There Was a Sudden Flit" see that moon and how grandly she moves? That moon is visible in every and under the sun and millions of people are looking at the glorious sight, but you are here to sell a sewing machine—a thing of steel and iron."

"Oh, I see the moon right enough," replied the agent, "but I might look at it for a year and it would bring me no bread and butter. If you happen to be satisfied with the machine you've got, let me sell you a musical instrument."
"You sordid wretch!" exclaimed Mr.
Bowser. "Listen to that harp and that song, and let your heart melt, as mine does."
The song of "Buffalo Gals" died away as suddenly as if a grasshopper had jumped down the throat of the singer. The harp quit playing and the crickets in the grass ceased to chirp.
The moon saw red and Mr. Bowser rose up and began to descend the steps. All his entrancement was gone and his eyes looked danger. The agent moved along and Mr. Bowser moved after him. He was reaching for the man's coat collar when there was a sudden flit and a pursuit. He ran that agent down to the corner and, though he did not catch him, he frightened him until he was as pale as a ghost.
Then he returned to his seat on the steps and, an hour later, Mrs. Bowser found him asleep in a shadow passed by the moon.
"Don't you know better than to sit out here in the chilly air?" she asked.
But Bowser only grunted. He had returned to practicality, and all sentiment had vanished with the whippoor-will, which was only a sparrow, anyway.

AMERICAN NEGROES MAKE GOOD SOLDIERS

With the American Troops in France, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—American negro troopers are regarded by their officers as exceptionally good at patrol work, as raiders and scouts. They seem to have some quality lacking in the white man which enables them to slink and crawl across No Man's Land in a way that defies detection. But the negroes never lose their latent superstition and fear of the dark. Without white officers to support them morally their value is said to deteriorate quickly. They "see things" with ease.
The negro trooper's timidity at night is best illustrated by the experience of a captain, who found one of his men at work after dark. The negro was talking violently to himself:
"Niggah, pick up that wheel barrow and push it over there! Now put that barrow down! Tip it over and empty it. Now wheel it back and fill it up again!"
To all of which the negro answered, "Yes, sah!" and suited the action to the word. He explained to the astonished captain that he felt, less lonely and scared in the dark if he pretended a white officer was there to give him orders.
Let the average negro soldier halt and be forced to lie down for a time, and he goes to sleep almost immediately, unless he is forcibly kept awake. The leaders of at least one regiment have had to adopt a plan whereby all the members of a patrol when they lie down, join hands, with the white officer at one end. He keeps the squad awake then by pressing the hand of the man next to him, who repeats the pressure to his right or left and receives an answering pressure as evidence that his companions are awake.
Nevertheless, the negroes are always ready for a fight. One regiment had begged its way into a portion of the line where action was assured in the last German offensive, and that action suddenly began. Five of the officers of that regiment alone were in hospitals but heard a few hours in advance of what was coming.
The colonel left the hospital on crutches, two other officers were carried to the trenches on litters and two more hobbled in—so as to be with their men and be assured they gave a good account of themselves. They did.
In the main the negro troops are deeply attached to their white officers and will go through fire and flood for them—or with them. In the main also the officers are attached to the men, take pride in them and father them no end. The negroes are punctilious in such details as saluting and deference to officers, and superiors though lax in other matters of discipline which they do not understand.

I. O. O. F. GRAND LODGE ADJOURNS

Oklahoma City, Oct. 2.—Plans for the building of a permanent home in Oklahoma were discussed yesterday by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at the closing session of the twenty-sixth annual convention of the grand lodge and the Rebekah assembly. Several cities are said to be in the running to secure the location of this home. They are Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Muskogee. Oklahoma City seems to be most favored.

The proposed building will cost between $300,000 and $500,000 according to the plans of the committee composed of the grand master, deputy grand master and the grand warden, who were appointed to learn what sites could be secured and what assistance would be given by the city in which the home is located.

The closing feature of the grand lodge was a stirring patriotic address by J. B. A. Robertson, democratic nominee for governor, and past grand sire of the sovereign grand lodge.

The convention closed late last night following the annual election of officers. In the Odd Fellows grand lodge M. E. Cope of El Reno was elected grand master; E. B. Cline, Tulsa, deputy grand master; Thomas G. Andrews, St. Paul, grand warden; G. W. Bruce, Guthrie, grand secretary; C. W. Schlegel, Chandler, grand treasurer; Logan Hawkins, Tonkawa, grand representative; George Morgan, Crescent, grand trustee, and A. T. Whitworth, Carmen, member of the orphan's home board. Oklahoma City was elected as the place for the next meeting.

The Rebekah assembly elected the following officers: Mrs. Minnie Stacey Hobart, president; Mrs. Cora Meeker, Sapulpa, vice president; Mrs. Helen Taggart, Muskogee, warden; Mrs. Martha E. Reger, Enid, secretary; Mrs. Ida Smith, Guthrie, treasurer. Mrs. Mattie Human, Durant, trustee, and Mrs. Viola Crisler, McAlester, member of the orphan's home board. Appointive officers are: Mrs. Jessie Fishback, Bartlesville, marshal; Mrs. Annie Higgins, Cheyenne, conductor; Mrs. Nettie Miller, Anadarko, chaplain; Mrs. Edythe Salter, Cherokee, inside guard and Mrs. Bessie Dickenson, Gotebo, outside guard.

Every parent with a son at or going to a training camp should see "Oklahoma Behind the Flag," for there they will see every phase of army training camp life. Its a true picture, an official picture and after you have seen it you'll know what the army means to your boy.

Men and Women of Ada

You are asked to give two hours to HELP WIN THE WAR!

Will you do it?

Of course you will.

And will you let General Pershing—YOUR General—name the time?

Of course you will.

Splendid!

Now, all together, GET READY!

Monday, Oct. 7, 9 A. M. to 11 A. M.

EVERYBODY AT ONCE?

Certainly!

Here is our pledge which we are going to sign:

To GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING AND ARMY,

En Route to Berlin.

Ada, Oklahoma, pledges you, through its entire citizenship, signed hereto, ten thousand strong, to dedicate TWO HOURS, from 9:00 a. m. to 11:00 a. m., Monday, October 7, 1918, to our flag and country, as follows:

During those two hours we will remain in our places of business, or in our homes if we have no place of business, and will center every thought during that time on the sole purpose of HELPING YOU AND OUR BOYS WIN THE WAR.

ONE HUNDRED of us, who are soldiers in the LIBERTY ARMY, recruited and under full military orders, will sell Ada's quota of Liberty Bonds during those hours to our people, including ourselves.

Those of us not in the Liberty Army, after completing our bond purchases, will devote the remainder of the two hours to patriotic services as follows:

We will write at least one letter in our own handwriting to a soldier at the front, renewing to him our assurances of undivided support.

We will, in family and business groups, sing "YOUR BOY AND MY BOY," and other patriotic songs, and where possible in groups, without leaving our places of business, listen to patriotic addresses, limiting our every thought and act to patriotic purpose.

It is our earnest prayer that our singleness of purpose as conveyed to you in this message, may, in some degree, contribute to the continued success of our American army.

SIGNED BY ADA'S ENTIRE CITIZENSHIP.

To Ada Ward Captains and Workers:

You will be furnished today sufficient copies of the Pershing Pledge to obtain the signatures of ALL the people of Ada.

You will, through your Committee, note and report any refusal to sign the pledge.

You will, through your Committee, advise our people of the following general rules governing the 9:00 to 11:00 o'clock Pledge.

No business of any character to be transacted by anyone during that period, other than the purchase of Liberty Bonds. The only exception is to be incident to sickness and indispensable public service.

No business of any character means:

No restaurant business, no dry goods sales, no soda water sales, no hotel registrations, settling of bills, no drayage done, no auto traffic, no grocery sales, no sales or purchases by phone, not a letter dictated nor a business letter opened, no bookkeeping entry, not a phone call except about Liberty Bonds, no reading of business correspondence—in fact, ABSOLUTELY NO BUSINESS. The schools will conduct patriotic exercises. Whistles everywhere are to blow promptly at 9:00 a. m. for five minutes, and for one minute at 11:00.

ABSOLUTELY UNIFORM OBSERVANCE OF EVERY DETAIL IS VITAL.

(Signed) ED GWIN, Chairman, For The City of Ada.

AND NOW, PEOPLE OF ADA! PLEASE GET THIS!

You are to buy your bonds from the Committee which will call on you Monday. You are to pay at least one-tenth of your subscription to that Committee, then you can go to the bank and arrange for the balance.

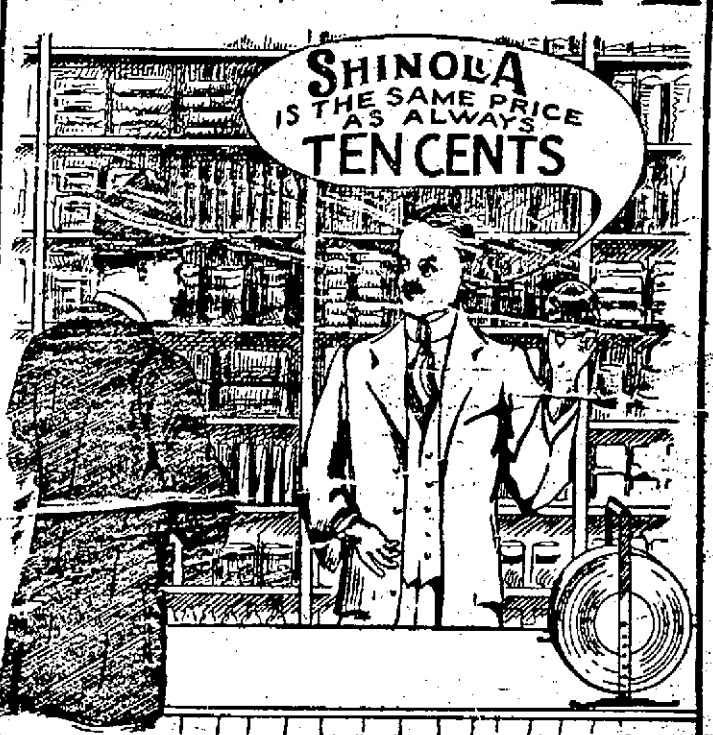

This is the meat of Ada Liberty Loan Plan, already organized to success—AND YOUR PART IS TO SIGN THE PERSHING PLEDGE.

Earnestly, ED GWIN, Chairman, For The City of Ada.

J. G. Estes has suggested that owners of worn out auto tires can help the Red Cross by donating these articles. Rubber commands a good price and these tires can be sold at good figures. THOUGHT MAN WAS CRAZY

"I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble for years; the last two years people have been calling me crazy. The doctors could not do anything for me. The awful bloating of gas seemed to press against my brain and I could not think clearly. Three months ago a friend advised taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has worked wonders in my case. All my bloating and suffering is gone and I feel as though newly born." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays Drug Company, and Druggists Everywhere.

On Wednesday, Oct. 2, the entire 36th Division, formerly of Camp Bowie, Ft. Worth, Tex., will be in Ada for the afternoon and night. There will be miles and miles of men (many of them from this locality) thousands of horses, train loads of supplies and equipment. They will pass in review, the entire division, nearly 40,000 men, in mass formation. They will continue their camp life and training, every detail of a great army training camp will be carried out in that splendid interesting, inspiring four real picture made at Camp Bowie, Tex., "Oklahoma Behind the Flag." It's a picture of an unusual kind and of a very interesting nature to Ada and vicinity, for the fact that many soldier boys from here are in it. Are you going to visit this camp and the boys from Ada while it is here? At the Liberty Theater Today—15c and 35c.

SUFFRAGE LOSSES IN SENATE BY 2 VOTES

Washington, Oct. 2.—The senate today refused to grant the request of the president that the woman suffrage resolution be passed as a war measure.

After five days of bitter debate, corridor conferences and cloakroom negotiations, the Susan B. Anthony federal amendment resolution enacted by the house last January received on the final roll call two votes less than the necessary two-thirds majority. Fifty-four senators were recorded for it and thirty against it, with twelve absent and paired.

Including the absent and paired senators the roll call showed that the senate lineup of 62 to 34 on the resolution remained virtually unchanged from the beginning of the fight Thursday.

Chairman Jones and other champions of the resolution declared after today's vote that the defeat is only temporary and that the contest will be renewed after the November elections, when changes in membership are certain. Administration leaders also admitted that the vote was the first important reverse President Wilson has met in advocacy of what he has declared to be essential war measures.

ANAEMIA AND POOR BLOOD

How Mrs. Burnell's Daughter Recovered.

Drewsville, N. H.—"My daughter was anaemic, had poor blood and suffered from indigestion and bilious attacks. As Vinol had built up my son some time ago, I gave it to my daughter, —she soon improved in health, and it has built her up and restored her health."—Mrs. N. Burnell.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Miss Burnell's case is because it contains best and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weak, run-down system, make rich red blood and create strength.

LAST SUNDAY A GREAT DAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday was a day long to be remembered at the Christian Church. Each succeeding service was just a little better than the preceding one, coming to a grand climax at the evening hour, when we had our service in honor of our soldier boys.

Lieut. Smiser, in command of our S. A. T. C. at the Normal, contributed greatly to our evening hour in the introductory address of the evening, bringing a very timely message to the people. He is one of our preachers, a graduate of our T. C. U. and the son of the pastor of the Christian church at Caddo. We now number him and his good wife as members of the church here.

It has been said many times that the best always comes last, so it was with our service. After the few words in honor of our soldier boys and for the encouragement of the folks at home, we gave the invitation and twelve came in response to the call.

At the morning hour, seven came in response to the invitation. One very impressive part of our service, was, during the evening prayer, in behalf of our soldier boys, the pianist played very softly the chorus of "Keep the Home Fires Burning." It was a day full of love, devotion and consecration.

We had a very delightful baptismal service Monday evening at the church, at which time we took the confession of another young lady, a normal student. Ten were buried with their Lord in baptism, arising to walk in "newness of life."

We have had twenty-six additions to the church since our vacation. During our five years with this church, we have had a total of three hundred and thirty-seven additions, one hundred and fifty-one of them by primary obedience. Beside this, we have assisted in three meetings, numbering a total of more than one hundred additions to the church, and have preached a few evenings at Tishomingo, with fourteen additions, and seven at two services at Roff and Hickory.

We have conducted 88 funerals, assisting in numbers of others, and have read 66 wedding ceremonies.

Our work with this church and community has been a source of joy and satisfaction. We desire to express our appreciation to the business men for every accommodation we have had from you, to the newspapers for your help, and to the community for the many avenues for service you have opened to us, as well as others.

Suffice it to say, we have enjoyed our relationship with this community, and its institutions, and appreciate fully the many friends we are to leave behind. We Love You, We Love You.
